What is Operation EDITH?

EDITH stands for Exit Drills In The Home.

- How would you and your family get out of your home if there were a fire?
- How would they escape from the second or third floor?
- What would you do after everyone is out of the house?

Here's how to do your own Operation EDITH Plan:

1. First you must have a plan. Every member of the family must be involved in developing your own Operation EDITH Plan.
2. Appoint a family Fire Chief. The Fire Chief can be your father, mother, teen-aged brother or sister, or even the babysitter.
3. The family visits each bedroom and picks 2 WAYS OUT- one the normal way out and the emergency route, through a different door or window.
4. Plan how each member of the family can reach the ground using the emergency route.
5. Decide on a meeting place outside the house such as near the mailbox or driveway or neighbors house.
6. Draw a picture of each floor in your home. Show where the rooms, doors, windows, and halls are. Then color the regular escape routes BLUE and the emergency routes RED.
7. Copies of your escape plan should be placed where everyone can see it (such as a bulletin board or on the refrigerator) and be reminded of what to do in a fire emergency

Draw your family's escape plan on the next page.

- Draw the layout of your home as best as you can and label each room. Include:
  - Doorways
  - Windows (if used as exits)
  - Fire Escapes (if in an apartment)
- Draw two floor plans if your house is two stories.
- Draw a circle where there are smoke detectors. Write "SD" on each circle.
- Draw two ways out of each room. Write "exit" on each way out of the home.
- Draw an "X" for a safe meeting place outside.
- Practice the escape plan often with your family.

My Escape Plan

This image shows a full page of blank graph paper. The grid consists of small, equal-sized squares formed by thin black lines. There are 20 columns and 20 rows of squares, creating a total of 400 square units. The grid covers the entire area of the page, leaving no margins or other markings.
